

RUSSIANS SAY GREAT FIGHT IS IN THEIR FAVOR

OFFICIAL REPORT SAYS TIDE OF GREAT CONFLICT HAS CHANGED.

ARE NEARING BLACK SEA PORT

Claim Advantage in Turkey—Western Armies Maintain Same Positions.

WAR SUMMARY.

(Associated Press)
Official reports from Russia claim that the great battle in Poland has turned in their favor. They also claim a big advantage in Turkey and are pushing on toward Erzerum, a Turkish city on the Black Sea.

IN THE WEST.

The opposing armies in the west
maintain practically the same relative positions they have held for the past two months. A Paris official report says there is nothing important to relate today.

ENGLISH COUNTESS WORLD'S LARGEST LOAN

London, Nov. 24.—The greatest war loan in history, $1,750,000,000,
has been closed. While figures on subscriptions have not been announced,
it is said that they were very successful.

Berlin, Nov. 24.—An official statement given out says: "In East Prussia the situation remains unchanged.
In Poland the appearance of Russian reinforcements is postponing a decision of the battle."

Both Claim Victory.

London, Nov. 24.—Both the Russians and the Germans claim victory
on the eastern front in contradictory
dispatches received here today.

The Russian version of the struggle is given in the following from Petrograd:

"It is now only a question of how many Germans succeeded in escaping.
It is declared here today in reports of fresh and important successes gained by the Russians between the Vistula
and Warthe rivers.

"The battle which has been raging
in contesting the German advance upon Warsaw has resulted in the forward movement being checked, it is asserted. The German losses are said to be enormous. At Kutno, twenty-five miles west of Lodz, 12,000 prisoners were taken.

"Another terrible battle is raging between Czenstochowo and Cracow.
"The Russians have captured Gum-binnen, in East Prussia."

Berlin Statement Optimistic.

From Berlin comes this optimistic
statement of the situation:

"The general staff, referring to important operations in Poland, now
nearing a decisive outcome, announced
today that it considered the situation
everywhere favorable.

"German cavalry patrols are within thirty miles of Warsaw.

CHARGES BOARD IS INCOMPETENT

OFFICIAL OF PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION WRITES TO THE GOVERNOR.

(Associated Press.)

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 24.—Charges
of incompetency aimed at the State Board of Equalization have been made by the Chief Statistician of the Public Utilities Committee, who intimated that the railroads are escaping just taxation. A letter from Governor Dunne, inclosing the sta-tistician's statement, advises the board
to give the statistician such information as they possess.

Mrs. Jacob Kalbaugh of South
Dixon was a Dixon trader yesterday.

Merchants Warned Against Stolen Postal Money Orders

The local postal authorities are in receipt of a notice from the postal inspectors to warn the merchants of this city to be on the watch for a man who presents money orders
numbered between 45,504 to 45,600,
these money order forms were stolen
from the postoffice at Kiefer, Okla.,
on Oct. 14, and the thief is now traveling about the country passing these orders in exchange for merchandise.

Bomb Wrecked Windows of U.S. Embassy Today

Ambassador Mariette Reports
Damage At Warsaw
Several Killed

(Associated Press)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 24.—Advices received here from U. S. ambassador Mariette at Petrograd, says that a bomb fell at the front of the American consulate at Warsaw breaking the windows but hurting no one within the building. Several persons were killed in the streets, but none of them were Americans.

The dropping of the bomb is believed to indicate the proximity of the Germans in their advance to Warsaw.

FREEPORT MAN KILLED BY AUTO

WILLIAM SALSURY, AGED 54, IS STRUCK IN STREET BY CAR.

Freeport, Nov. 24.—William Salsbury, 54 years of age, received injuries which caused his death five-teen minutes after the accident happened, and Elmer Buss, fourteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Buss, residing on Galena street, received a broken arm and bruises
about the head which caused him to be delirious for a number of hours,
when a motor delivery truck, owned by the Becker Taxi-Cab line driven by Harry Strock, 16 years of age, struck Mr. Salsbury, who was in the act of picking up kindling wood from the street to carry into his home. The application of the brakes was the cause of throwing Buss from the lap
of Richard Crean, the latter and Buss being occupants of the auto for the purpose of a ride.

SHORT MUSICAL AT FAIR TONIGHT

RICE TRIO WILL ENTERTAIN AT ELKS BAZAAR THIS EVENING.

A musical treat of interest is promised for those who attend the Elks' fair this evening, for at 8:30 o'clock, prior to the dancing the Rice Trio (Miss Myrtle and brothers Elmer and Curtis) will give a short musical. These musicians need no introduction to the Dixon public and that their program will give enjoyment to all is assured.

Monday evening was a record
breaker for the poultry booth, more fowls being disposed of than ever before on a Monday night; while tonight it is expected to eclipse any
night in the history of the Elks' fair.
Over a hundred dressed turkeys
will be on hand this evening,
while the supply of chickens, ducks
and geese will be larger than usual.
Slothower's orchestra will furnish the music for the dancing this evening.

ADJUSTER FAILED TO ARRIVE

(Special to Telegraph)

Amboy, Ill., Nov. 24.—The fire adjusters failed to arrive in Amboy on Monday to settle the loss on the Amboy hospital, which was destroyed by fire last week, and accordingly the board at its meeting last night could make no arrangements for the erection of a new structure.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lurch of the King dom were Dixon callers Monday.

FOURTH AURORA WOMAN ATTACKED MONDAY EVENING

SUSIE MILLER, FACTORY GIRL, ESCAPES BY TEARING HER CLOTHING.

NO RELATIVE OF DEAD WOMAN

Officers Have Been Unable to Learn Anything of Real Value.

(Associated Press)

Aurora, Nov. 24.—A woman, whose name is withheld by the police, has been found, who says she saw a man
run away from the scene of the murder of Miss Jennie Miller, and can identify him. She says she did not make this known before because she feared a nervous breakdown if drawn into public notice in connection with the case in any way.

Aurora, Ill., Nov. 24.—Still another woman has been attacked by the mysterious assailant who is spreading terror among the women of Aurora.

The latest victim was seized last night when only a few feet from the door of her own house and in the struggle that followed her clothing was partly torn off. The victim was Miss Susie Miller, daughter of Theodore Miller of 273 Rosewood avenue.
She is 22 years old.

Miss Miller started for a grocery store only four doors from her residence. She had taken but a few steps when she was seized in an iron grasp and a hand was put around her throat.

With a wrench that left part of her clothing in her assailant's hands
Miss Miller tore herself away and began to scream. Men ran from the grocery store and the assailant fled.

Miss Miller was able to give but a meager description of the man. She said he was 30 or 35 years old and wore dark clothes. The Miller girl is not related to Jennie Miller, the murder victim of last week.

MAIN WITNESS FOR PETRAS HELD

KANE COUNTY GRAND JURY RE-TURNS INDICTMENTS FOR PERJURY.

Geneva, Nov. 24.—The Kane county
grand jury has returned two indictments against Zophery Baltazar, an Aurora cigar manufacturer, who was the principal witness for Tony Petras, acquitted after two trials of the murder of Theresa Hollander. It is charged that Baltazar gave perjured testimony at both trials. He swore that on the day after the murder Walter Hickman, a negro, who testified he saw Petras running after the Hollander girl just before she was dragged into St. Nicholas cemetery, told him he saw Petras go in a direction opposite that taken by the girl. Baltazar aided in breaking down the story of Hickman, who was the state's most important witness.

DECLARE ELVIN GILLILORE DEPENDENT

COUNTY COURT TOOK ACTION ON PETITION FILED MONDAY AFTERNOON.

Elvin Gillilore was declared dependent by Judge Scott in the county court Monday afternoon following a petition filed by his mother, Mrs. Jennie Schaffer, asking that he be declared delinquent.

Young Gillilore, who is but fifteen years of age, left home a short time ago and secured a position at a local livery barn. Since that time he has not been home and the petition of yesterday was filed to have him declared delinquent and returned to his home.

Investigation resulted in an order
being entered declaring the boy dependent. He will not be required to return home.

C. H. Lehman of Franklin Grove
was here this morning on business.

Dan Stauffer of Pennsylvania Corners visited in this city yesterday.

Ray Hoyle of Nelson visited in this city today.

Brakeman Saw Man Climbing On Train at Nelson

Inquest Will Be Held Over
Remains of Man Found
In Box Car

(Special to the Telegraph.)

Pekin, Nov. 24.—A telegram was received yesterday from Charles Glendenning of Toronto, Canada,
stating F. D. Glendenning, the man
found murdered in a car at South Pekin was his brother. He says
stating F. D. Glendenning, the man at Ruth, Cornwall, England, and was 45 years old. He left London, Ont., 20 years ago and the brother had not heard of him for years. A description of the dead man was given, and it tallies with that of the body. The brother was wired and probably will come to Pekin.

Another telegram sent out by Coroner Masen brought a reply from M.
J. Jordan of Fort Dodge, Iowa. He knew F. D. Glendenning, he had worked there and had come from Redfield, Minn., leaving Fort Dodge about two months ago. Jordan said the man had a wife and two children
in Chicago and an effort will be made to locate them.

The body is being held waiting
word from relatives and the inquest probably will be resumed this afternoon when Brakeman Draper of the Northwestern freight on which Glendenning was killed, will be there to view the body and decide if it is the man he saw climbing on his train at Nelson.

COURT OF APPEALS HEARD ICE CASE

WILL HAND DOWN DECISION IN LOCAL SUIT AT THE JAN-UARY TERM.

The case of the Dixon Pure Ice Co.
vs. the Sandusky Portland Cement
company, in which a decision was rendered during the summer in favor of the ice company by Federal Judge K.
M. Landis, was argued in the United States court of appeals in Chicago on Monday, the issues having been taken to that tribunal by the cement corporation. Two hours were allowed for oral argument Monday and written briefs were submitted. The court will hand down a decision in January, according to its custom. Attorney Clyde Smith of this city represented the ice company while the Sandusky Portland Cement company was represented by Attorney E. H. Brewster of this city and Senator Parker of the law firm of Parker & Carter.

BELIEVE DISEASE HAS BEEN CHECKED

AUTHORITIES HOPEFUL THAT CATTLE EPIDEMIC IS STOP-PED IN WHITESIDE.

With no new cases of foot and mouth disease reported over Sunday
in Whiteside county, the government and state veterinarians believe that they now have the start on the disease and that it can be stamped out.
Today the officials went to Fulton
where they will finish the work of killing, while tomorrow they will kill at Tampico, the owners of the Tampico herds not having finished the burying pits on Sunday. The hard work and strict methods of the officials are beginning to bear fruit
and the officers feel that they are in a fair way now to stop the spread of the disease throughout the county.

G. A. R. LADIES IN OFFER TO ASSIST THE GOODFELLOWS

WILL PROVIDE CHRISTMAS TO ANY OLD SOLDIER OR HIS BLOOD RELATIVES.

CASH DONATIONS ARE NEEDED

Committee in Charge Had Need for Funds—Time Growing
Short.

The president of the Ladies of the
G. A. R. communicated with the Good Fellow department of the Evening Telegraph today and informed us that the G. A. R. would be glad to supply a Christmas to any old soldier or to the blood relation of any old soldier
who is in want.

The Good Fellows will turn the cases of the veterans or their kin over to the ladies of the G. A. R., and they may rest assured they will be well cared for.

Cash donations have not been coming in as rapidly as had been hoped for but the $35 previously acknowledged has been supplemented by fifty cents from a "Friend." The Good Fellows are asked to come forward with their donations early this year. Last year the amount ran high but not until the very last, and the result was that the Good Fellow committee
might have done even greater good had they known what support they could count on from the citizens.

Please send to the Good Fellow department of the Evening Telegraph
the names of all persons whom you believe might need assistance this season if they are to have a Merry Christmas. Do not delay. It may mean the loss of much happiness to some
one. Let us know the names and addresses of all poor persons immediately, with such details as you may possess. It takes time to investigate
all cases and gather the necessary material together. You can act now as well as later.

PREPARING GIFTS FOR THE HOSPITAL

PUPILS OF DIXON SCHOOLS ARE MAKING UP DONATIONS OF EDIBLES.

The pupils of the local schools are preparing their annual Thanksgiving contributions to the Dixon public hospital, as has been customary
in the schools of this city for a number of years. The contributions of the pupils usually consist of vegetables and fruit and are very much appreciated by the hospital board.

Contributions of private individuals are very numerous at Thanksgiving time and they too are most acceptable. The liberal contributions of the school children as well as those of private individuals prove the public spiritedness of the people of this community.

MORRISON STATION AGENT IS INJURED

STUMBLED AND FELL BEFORE A NORTHWESTERN PASSENGER TRAIN MONDAY.

Earl McDaniels, night station agent
at the Northwestern depot at Morrison, was badly injured Monday morning when he was struck by passenger train No. 24, and thrown considerable distance. So far as known no bones were broken, but he was badly injured and bruised and it will be some time before he will be able to attend to his duties. He was on his way to place baggage on the train
when his foot caught in the planking and he was thrown over and at this junction he was struck by the train.
He was rendered unconscious and taken to the depot and the company
doctor summoned.

His wife is in Pennsylvania preparing to move her household goods
to Morrison.

EDWARDS TO DELIVER SPEECH

States Attorney Harry Edwards,
who is one of the most brilliant orators
in Northern Illinois, will deliver the Memorial address to the Mendota Lodge B. P. O. E. on Sunday, December 4th.

Steamer Broke In Two In High Seas; Thirteen Rescued

Dense Fog and Choppy Sea
Made Boats Life
Lines Useless

(Associated Press)

San Francisco Nov. 24.—Thirteen persons, including Capt. Carey, have been rescued from the steamer Pana-lei, which broke in two on Duxbury reef. Three passengers and two seamen swam ashore.

The Panalei carried fifty-eight persons all told. Efforts to get boats to the stranded steamer were futile and lifelines could not be handled because of the handicap of a high sea and the dense fog.

This afternoon figures were given out that forty-three had survived the wreck of the coasting steamer Pana-lei on Duxbury Reef, and that fifteen were dead.

The ship went to pieces after pounding all night on the reef. The revenue cutter McCullough picked up thirteen of the survivors and others made their own way through the surf to the shore.

TAKE OFF THROUGH TRAINS NEXT SUNDAY

NORTHWESTERN ANNOUNCES A MOVE IN RETRENCHMENT CAMPAIGN.

In keeping with their intention of cutting down the expenses of running through passenger trains the officials of the Northwestern have notified the local office that a new time card will become effective next Sunday whereby eastbound passenger No. 14, due in Dixon at 1:16 p. m., will be taken off entirely.

The American Express, No. 23, due here at midnight, will also be taken off, while train No. 11, which now runs through to Denver, will make Omaha its terminal. The noon passenger, westbound, No. 13, will on Sunday become the Denver special and will carry Denver sleepers. As far as is known now there will be no change
in the schedule of other trains.

SPECIAL ENVOY HAS MYSTERIOUS MESSAGE

ARRIVED TODAY WITH IMPOR-TANT DOCUMENT FOR THE SWEDISH EMBASSY.

(Associated Press)

New York, Nov. 24.—Her Ostberg,
a special envoy from the King of Sweden, arrived here today and left immediately for Washington with a message for the Swedish embassy,
which he said was too important to be entrusted to cable or mail. He professed ignorance of the text of the message.

FOREST FIRES CHECKED BY RAIN

(Associated Press)

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 24.—The great forest fires in Arkansas and Louisiana have been checked by big rains. There has been great monetary damage but no loss of life.

Barnhart Heckman Services Monday Drew Large Crowds

Increased interest marked the Barnhart-Heckman revival services at the Brethren church Monday evening and the manner in which these two evangelists are awakening their hearers indicates that their services are sure to be of great success. Monday evening Rev. Barnhart used the afflicted woman of Mary 5 as a type of sin-sick
men, and he built up another beautiful discourse. Contrasting the two he observed that in this day of great unrest, and distress of mind and body,
people are trying every other suggested and proposed remedy, but the one that can and will heal.

As the woman was disappointed
and for years and years grew worse
till she touched Jesus, so every soul
burdened with sin finds no relief till
he lays hold upon the healing righteousness of Jesus.

There were many people thronging
Jesus and it was hard for the woman
to reach him.
Those who feel their need will come to Jesus for healing though hindrances oppose them. Many people thronged him but only one really touched Jesus in this crowd. Many profess to follow Him now; they throng Him, they enter the sanctuary, they sing, say prayers, etc., but "who touched Me"
is the great issue of the hour; who touches Jesus among the masses of professing followers?
Only those who feel their need,
their dependence upon Jesus, and reach Him with a touch of faith,
bring response of blessing and healing from the throne of God upon their souls.

PEORIA FIRM HAD LOW BID ON BUILDINGS

PROPOSALS RECEIVED FOR THE
FIRST EPILEPTIC COLONY
STRUCTURES.

M'ALPINE WAS $14,000 OVER

Fifteen Contractors Submitted Their Bids—May Erect Three More
Structures.

(Special to the Telegraph.)

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 24.—The State Board of Administration Monday received and opened bids for the erection of an administration building, dining hall and four dormitories
at the site of the new state epileptic colony at Dixon.

Fifteen Bidders.

There were about fifteen bidders
present at the letting, the bid of William H. Allen & Son of Peoria at approximately $156,000 for the erection of the administration building,
a dining hall and four dormitories,
being the lowest. The next bidder was about $10,000 higher, while W.
J. McAlpine Dixon was about $14,000
higher than the Allens.

May Be More.

It is possible the state board of administration will within a short time
advertise for bids on the erection of another dining hall and one or two dormitories, as it is planned to expend the entire balance of the appropriation so more can be asked from the next legislature.

McAlpine Interviewed.

Dixon.—Mr. McAlpine, the Dixon contractor, who entered the competition for the work at the colony,
arrived home this noon from Springfield. He stated to a Telegraph reporter that the state board has anticipated tabulating all the bids Monday afternoon, but found the work

FIRE AND POLICE CHIEFS IN ACCIDENT

SERGEANT GAFFNEY AND CHIEF
COFFEY SLIGHTLY HURT
MONDAY EVENING.

Police Sergeant John Gaffney and Fire Chief Thomas Coffey were injured slightly at 6 o'clock Monday evening when the buggy in which they were riding with Utility Police Officer Peter Duffy was struck by an auto delivery truck driven by Winfred Pierce at the corner of Third street and Galena avenue.

Sergeant Gaffney and Chief Coffey
were thrown out and slightly injured in the fall to the brick pavement. Officer Duffy was not thrown out and retained control of the horse, which started to run south on Galena avenue when the vehicle was struck.

The three gentlemen were driving
south on Galena avenue and Mr.
Pierce was driving east on Third street. Pierce attempted to make the turn at the corner of Galena avenue,
but his brakes refused to hold and
the machine skidded into the buggy occupied by the city officials with the above mentioned result.

JURORS ADMIT CRITICISM THEY GOT IS MERITED

MEX WHO THOUGHT BYERS SISTERS NOT GUILTY EXPERIENCE CHANGE OF HEART.

ONE IS SORRY HE SWITCHED

Gus Hein of Erie Has Been "Jumped" On Ever Since He Got Home.

The Whiteside Sentinel, published at Morrison, has the following concerning the "change of heart" several of the jurors in the Byers murder case have had since their verdict of acquittal of the two women:

"Gus Hein of Erie, one of the jurors in the Byers murder case was in Morrison today and called at the Sentinel office to express himself regarding the verdict of the jury that has caused so much condemnation throughout Whiteside county.

"Mr. Hein expressed himself as being extremely sorry that he ever switched from guilty to not guilty, saying that he was one of the last of the jurors to do so.

"Mr. Hein said that his idea favored a conviction, and that he cast every ballot until the last in that way and he now regrets that he did not stay out longer or until the jury had been discharged because it could not agree.

"He has heard considerable talk over the verdict and finds that the people in general are of the opinion that a conviction should have resulted. He says that he has been 'jumped' on every hand by the citizens of Erie for his actions."

Money Above Morals.

The Sentinel also published the following letter from two of the jurors:

"In response to the article that appeared in Friday's issue of the Sentinel, dedicated to a 'Mere Man,' we want to say he assuredly is correct in his opinion. We, the twelve jurors on the Byers trial, are deserving of all the criticism that we are getting. The voice of the people when they say that the verdict is infamous, is expressing it lightly. Whereas, we were the last to confound to the decision, we do not feel liable for the transitive feeling of the public. Had we two been the cause of having a new trial, and the jury men of that trial had decided 'not guilty' we then would have been the cause of the extra cost of the trial which would have been no small amount if it had been taken to another county.

W. J. Crump, Morrison.
J. E. Houch, Prophetstown."

OUCH! LUMBAGO PAIN RUB BACKACHE AWAY

INSTANT RELIEF WITH A SMALL TRIAL BOTTLE OF OLD "ST. JACOB'S OIL."

Kidneys cause backache? No! They have no nerves, therefore can not cause pain. Listen! Your backache is caused by lumbago, sciatica or a strain, and the quickest relief is soothing, penetrating "St. Jacob's Oil." Rub it right on your painful back, and instantly the soreness, stiffness and lameness disappears. Don't stay crippled! Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacob's Oil" from your druggist and limber up. A moment after it is applied you'll wonder what became of the backache and lumbago pain.

Rub old, honest "St. Jacob's Oil" whenever you have sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism or sprains, as it is absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

State of Illinois, Lee County, ss.
Estate of Christian Biester, Deceased.
Public notice is hereby given, that the undersigned, administrator with the will annexed, of the estate of Christian Biester, deceased, will attend before the County Court of Lee County, at the Court House in Dixon, on the 9th day of December, 1914, next, for the purpose of making a final settlement of said estate, at which time and place I will ask for an order of distribution, and will also ask to be discharged. All persons interested are notified to attend.

ARMY MULE WILL NOT BE SUPPLANTED

BAD ROADS IN AMERICA PRECLUDE GENERAL USE OF MOTOR TRUCKS.

Washington, Nov. 22.—The American army mule need have no fear for his laurels because of the great part gasoline motors have played in the transportation problems of European armies in the present war. Until American roads generally are brought up to the high standard of the roads of Germany, France, Belgium and other European countries, the army mule will determine by his capacity for hauling, the limitation of operations for American military forces.

Only one branch of the United States army is giving serious attention to motor traction. In the quartermaster's department experiments are being made particularly along the Texas border, with handling supplies in motor trucks. Motor trucks are in general use of course, about army posts and whenever good roads are available; but when maneuvers take the columns into the field and the sandy or muddy country roads, where mere wheel tracks across the country are the only highways, the six mule team is still master of the transportation problem.

A few years ago it was determined to experiment with the motor transportation as a means to increase the radius of field artillery. The most available subject for this purpose was the battery wagon, carrying the forges for gun repairs and horse shoeing and also the saddler's equipment. One such wagon accompanies every battery of artillery in the field. It trails along in the rear of the column and does no go into action. Thus its activities are largely confined to roads although the battery itself must go cross lots by field and stream to take positions against an approaching hostile force.

General Crozier, chief of the army ordnance bureau, designed a motor battery wagon which was tried out in maneuvers. It proved to be a flat failure for it was so heavy that it broke through bridges, sunk to the hubs in soft roads and generally hampered the battery to which it was attached. The experiment was abandoned and the ordnance bureau is now content to await the results of experiments of the quartermaster's department in self-propelled army transportation units. Mules and horses are good enough for American artillerymen as yet.

In connection with the newest heavy seige pieces designed for the American army it was proposed to experiment with European gasoline traction engines. Arrangements were under way for the importation of one of these at the time the European war broke out. Now every engine has been turned to actual use abroad and instead of importing automobiles or motor trucks the United States is shipping them abroad for the use of armies there.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't stay gray! Here's a simple recipe that anybody can apply with a hair brush.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.

PORTUGAL.

Portugal, which has recently shaken its fist at Germany from a safe distance, is a small country which has made its dents in history and geography in its time. It is not as large as the state of New York and often during its varied career has contained less than a million people. Yet it has sung bass in the concert of nations at times and has recently renewed its youth by kicking out its king, establishing a republic and joining the big European rough-house.

Portugal is located on the west side of the Spanish peninsula and is a sunny, picturesque country which supports 5,000,000 people with less than half its area. Its chief products are wine, olives, fruits, onions and bull fights. Some of the implements used by the Portuguese farmers were invented by the Romans and if a self-binder were introduced in some provinces the inhabitants would climb trees for safety when they saw it coming. Only 20 per cent of the Portuguese can read or write; more than half of them can sail a boat. The Portuguese sardine fleet is composed of 20,000 vessels and the Portuguese have made first-class navigators for five hundred years. The Portuguese first discovered the way around the Cape of Good Hope at a time when the reptiles in the southern seas were supposed to be more deadly than submarines. Four hundred years ago the Portuguese empire extended around the globe and Portuguese sailors were traveling over oceans which were unsuspected by other nations. However, the Portuguese navy is not going to make much trouble in the present war. It consists of one rickety battleship and a few gunboats and one German war cruiser would pi the whole thing before breakfast.

Portugal settled Brazil and owned it for almost three hundred years. It the end of this time Brazil was so much bigger than Portugal that a dispute arose as to which country owned the other and Portugal barely escaped with its independence. The Portuguese have always had a hard time with their kings and have started out with a republic knowing as little about self-government as a missionary does about aeroplanes. But they have gotten along for four years with only a few minor revolutions and we are very hopeful.

Portugal has one great city Lisbon, celebrated for its earthquakes. It also has better roads than America, but this is almost an unnecessary statement.

Dramatic Notes

PRINCESS.

Tonight Manager Slothower has booked a program of fine merit in a two reel Reliance feature entitled "A Woman Scorned," with Eugene Palete and Francesca Billington in the leading roles. This story shows how the fury of a woman discarded by her husband seeks revenge for her wrongs and puts clever detectives on his trail after a robbery is committed which ends in his capture. This story is very cleverly acted by the Reliance players. The other pictures are "The Widow's Children," A Reliance drama starring Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mackley. This is a thrilling western drama. The other picture is a Keystone comedy entitled, "High Spots on Broadway" with one of their all star casts including "Fatty" and Charles Chaplin, the police force and firemen's brigade.

FAMILY THEATRE

The Family theatre will be given over to pictures this evening and tomorrow evening, and vaudeville for the last half of the week with Thanks giving matinee on Thursday. This evening the subjects are "The Man Who Knew," "Squaring the Triangle" and two other subjects will be shown. On account of the late arrival of the films it was impossible to give the names of two of the subjects. On tomorrow evening a special three-reel picture will be given.

A MODERN EVE

WAS FINE SHOW

The musical comedy, "A Modern Eve," which appeared at the Opera House Sunday night, delighted an almost capacity audience and gave a fine, well-balanced performance. The music is bright and catchy, the costumes and scenery beautiful and the company large and adequate. The principals were thoroughly competent and good singers and the entire production was clean, bright, snappy, tuneful and one of the most enjoyable seen here for many a season. The dancing by several members of the company was worthy of special mention.

Mr. Simpson, the local manager, has booked nothing but the best of road attractions and assures his patrons that they he best obtainable will play this city.

The next big attraction will be "A September Morn," with Dave Lewis playing the lead.

SIEGEL IS SENTENCED TO THE PENITENTIARY

Judge Gives Him Chance to Pay Back His Depositors.

Geneseo, N. Y., Nov. 24.—The jury which has heard the testimony in Henry Siegel's trial for grand larceny found him guilty of a misdemeanor at 11:45 at night after being out since 7:30. Justice Clarke sentenced him to pay a fine of $1,000 and to serve ten months in Monroe county penitentiary at Rochester. But the judgment as far as the prison term is concerned is to be stayed until the second Monday in June, when Siegel is to appear here before Judge Clarke. If an effort has been made by that time to pay back the depositors in the Siegel bank the court will consider that fact; if not he is to serve the prison term as the court determined. Siegel was paroled in the custody of his counsel, John B. Stanchfield, until his bail bond of $25,000 continued by the court is renewed in five days. He had nothing to say to the verdict.

Judge Clarke when Siegel, standing beside Mr. Stanchfield, declared he had nothing to say, remarked that he had heard that Siegel intended to pay back the money he had lost to the depositors.

"Is that correct?" he asked. Siegel was so nervous he had to ask his lawyers before replying: "I make that premise."

The court added that the verdict was in full accord with the evidence.

DEMENTTOWN DOINGS

On April 9 Paymaster Coop and a number of his bluejackets from one of the United States battleships in the harbor of Vera Cruz, were arrested and detained by the Mexican commander there. Admiral Fletcher demanded that Huerta's government apologize by saluting the Stars and Stripes. Huerta refused and the U. S. Marines took possession of Vera Cruz, later turning the city over to the war department, who sent Gen. Funston and an army corps there.

During the seven months the occupation has cost the United States the lives of twenty-three of its soldiers and $10,000,000 in coin of the realm.

Yesterday the U. S. army withdrew from Vera Cruz. But—

The flag hasn't yet been saluted nor has any apology been made.

Possibly, if they know of these happenings—we said possibly—Grant, Lincoln, McKinley, Washington, Jackson and a few of the departed ones who believed the Stars and Stripes to be the greatest emblem on earth, will unite in the democratic catch phrase, "Thank God for Wilson."

Speaking of angels in disguise—but, on the other hand—what business has an angel in disguise?

A youngster put one over on us yesterday which stumped us—and we have decided to appeal the question to the great army of happy and satisfied Doings readers. Here it is: What did moths live on in Adam and Eve's time?

Lee Dysart told Will Ford that if he ever had any trouble starting his auto he would find great comfort in jacking up the rear wheel—meaning the power wheel, of course—turning the engine over and setting her run awhile. So the other morning when the machine was cold Bill gave Lee's plan a try. But he jacked up the wrong wheel and when the engine started the machine did too. And Bill, being in front of the machine, nearly took the end of the garage out. He doesn't want the joke to become generally known—so don't tell anybody.

A SIMPLE WAY TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Prevent Falling Hair and End Itching Scalp.

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve, and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. If you value your hair, you should get rid of dandruff at once, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only destroys the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it.

For George Engel.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wernick entertained at dinner Saturday in the honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Wernick's father George Engel. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wernick, Mr. and Mrs. George Engel and Mrs. P. M. Drenner.

Ends Dry, Hoarse or Painful Coughs Quickly
*****

A Simple, Home-Made Remedy, Inexpensive but Unequaled.

The prompt and positive results given by this pleasant tasting, home-made cough syrup has caused it to be used in more homes than any other remedy. It gives almost instant relief and will usually overcome the average cough in 24 hours.

Get 2½ ounces Pinex (50 cents worth) from any drug store, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This makes a full pint—a family supply—of the most effective cough remedy at a cost of only 54 cents or less. You couldn't buy as much ready-made cough medicine for $2.50. Easily prepared and never spoils. Full directions with Pinex.

The promptness, certainty and ease with which this Pinex Syrup overcomes a bad cough, chest or throat cold is truly remarkable. It quickly loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes a painful cough in a hurry. With a persistent loose cough it stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the annoying hacking.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract rich in quaiacal and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Blue and White Shower.

About twelve girls gathered at the home of Miss Hermina Hecker, Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Rebecca Llevan, who is to become a Thanksgiving bride. The afternoon was spent in needlework for the bride elect, after which Miss Gleim played "Thannhouser's March" while two of the girls presented Miss Llevan with the numerous gifts. She was the recipient of many useful articles and many jokes were cast as the parcels were unwrapped.

At 5 o'clock a dainty four course luncheon was served, the table being decorated with fern leaves, red and white carnations. After the bride's cake had been served, it was related that a piece of candy was hidden in one of the pieces and the fortunate finder was to be the next bride. The girls are waiting to see if this proves true.

All departed wishing Miss Llevan much joy and happiness in her future life.

Entertained Club.

Miss Addie Howell delightfully entertained the Original Six Club at her home last evening with an oyster supper. The evening was spent in fancy work and the hostess served a most delicious supper.

At Baughman Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sturtz and family of Rock Falls spent Sunday in this city at the H. T. Baughman home.

In Chicago.

Miss Hattie Mulkins was in Chicago yesterday in the interest of buying winter millinery stock for her establishment.

Wedding Tomorrow.

Tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock at St. Mary's Catholic church Rev. Father Conley will perform nuptial high mass uniting in marriage Miss Theresa O'Malley daughter of Mrs. Ann O'Malley of Walton and Michael Powers of Walton.

The couple will be attended by Miss Agnes O'Malley of Walton and William Powers of Chicago. The bride will be attired in a creation of white crepe meteor and old lace and will wear a tulle veil caught up with white hyacinths while her bridesmaid will wear pink and a colonial cap of old lace. The bride and her lady will wear corsage bouquets of white chrysanthemums and pink roses respectively.

Following the wedding ceremony a four-course wedding breakfast will be served by Misses Catherine Conroy and Sadie O'Malley at the home of the bride's mother where pink roses and yellow and white chrysanthemums will be used in profusion in the decorations. The happy couple will enjoy a short honeymoon following which they will return to the groom's farm near Ohio where they will be at home after Dec. 10th.

Notice Please.

By mistake the weekly calendar has a meeting of the Knights and Ladies of Security billed for this evening at Miller's hall. There is no such meeting and this evening the Royal neighbors will serve a pot luck dinner in the hall from 7 to 9 o'clock for the members of the Royal Neighbors and their families. There will be a musical program, and a social session and a good time for all attending.

United States Will Probe Reported Sale to Germans.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 24.—Collector of the Port Hamilton has instructed Virginia pilots, under instructions from Washington, not to take the Norwegian steamer Gladstone, now at Newport News, out of the harbor until further orders from him.

It is reported that the Gladstone has been sold to a German firm for $240,000. She is being repainted and having wireless installed. The Gladstone has loaded a thousand barrels of oil from a Baltimore schooner, some coal and supplies.

GREAT TURKEY REGION.

Thanksgiving Bird Flourishes Better in Southwest Texas Than Elsewhere.

The turkey flourishes in southwest Texas as in no other part of the United States. There is an abundance of natural food upon which the birds thrive wonderfully. There is no lack of wide ranges for their foraging, and the climate is so mild that no shelter is necessary. But turkeys were not raised to any extent in that region until the two cold storage and slaughtering plants were erected at Cuero. Then Cuero became the turkey center of the United States, more dressed turkeys being shipped out of the town than from any other place in the country. From the 1st of November to the last of January the plants are in operation day and night.

The largest turkey drive ever seen in the United States took place into Cuero when 8,000 were herded by a dealer and driven thirteen miles. It took the drovers thirty hours to deliver the turkeys. The birds took a notion to roost in a grove about four miles from town, and nothing would induce them to continue the march to the slaughtering pens.

When the birds are well behaved and meet with no strange obstacles on the road the drovers have no difficulty, but when a turkey drive becomes really frightened a cattle stampede is a tame affair in comparison.

The greatest cause of trouble for the drovers is the turkey's habit of selecting its roosting time without regard to the time of day, particularly if the sky be overcast and the birds are passing through a wooded stretch of road. In cloudy weather the drovers carefully avoid the bottom lands and wooded sections, where the darkness is apt to fool the birds into believing that the sun is sinking.

Detours of miles are sometimes made to avoid such conditions. Once the birds decide to stop for the night or day it is impossible to force them to continue the march. Along the most commonly used roads for the drives there are regular roosting places at convenient intervals, which the drovers always try to reach before dusk.

The Death Warrant

The noble bird will get his quietus just prior to Thanksgiving day, to help us rejoice the more merrily. It will take a nice fire to bring him to the table in a savory shape. Our part of Thanksgiving cooking is the supplying of good coal—coal that will roast and brown your turkey to "Uncle Sam's taste." We await your order for Thanksgiving coal.

THE LACK OF CONFIDENCE.

The New York Independent, one of the most staid and conservative publications in the United States, takes the view that the recent election amounted to a vote of the lack of confidence in the administration. This is about the only construction that can be reasonably placed on it. The Independent says:

The result of the elections was surprising. The democrats did not expect such reverses. The republicans did not expect such success. In the house of representatives the overwhelming democratic majority has been cut to the slim margin of 23. The great state of New York, in spite of a four-cornered fight for the governorship, has gone republican with a rush. In the great state of Pennsylvania, in spite of a three-cornered fight, hotly waged, the republicans have re-elected Penrose as senator and elected the state ticket.

Everywhere the democratic vote has fallen off, while the republican vote has swelled. The turnover has been largest in the east, but decided all along the line.

The prestige of the Wilson administration has received a severe blow. What is the reason? Why has the country manifested this sudden purpose to repent and return to republicanism?

Good and sufficient reasons are given by both sides. The partisan will accept those that jump with his convictions or his prejudices. But it is the task of the unprejudiced commentator to weigh them all and apportion to each as best he may its particular measure of merit.

The principal democratic explanations are these:

1. It is really a victory for the Wilson administration, for on several similar occasions in the past—halfway through an administration—the dominant party's majority in congress has been wiped out.
2. The progressives have largely returned to the republican party and this is normally a republican country.
2. Hard times are always bad for the party in power, entirely regardless of its responsibility for bringing them on.
- The republican contentions run about like this:
  1. The democratic tariff and democratic interference with business are responsible for the low level of prosperity.
  2. The President's foreign policy, which has been picturesquely described as "hiding under the bed," is a mistaken one.
  3. There has been too much legislation.
  4. It has been proven again which is the party of prosperity.

In estimating the value of these contentions, it must be remembered that their essential truth is not the question at issue. It does not matter at all in determining why people voted as they did, whether the record of the Wilson administration has been good or bad, its policies wise or foolish. It only matters what the people think about its record, how the people judge its policies.

If any large number of voters had come to believe that the hard times were due to the administration's deeds or to its negligences, they would vote for the opposition even though the administration were in reality no more responsible than the man in the moon. It is not facts that decide elections; it is what the voters think about the facts.

Keeping this distinction clearly in mind, the situation may be interpreted with some approach to fairness and accuracy. There is truth, in varying proportions, in most, if not all, of the divergent contentions of the republicans and democrats.

The progressives, by and large, have returned to the republican party. We have had times of reduced prosperity, and hard times are bad for the party in power. There has been a steadily growing feeling that the time has come to stop legislating for the restraint of business. This is normally a republican country, and when the impetus of a successful attack against republicanism, like that of the democracy under Wilson at the last election, begins to die away, the republican party naturally tends to return to power. Each of these influences undoubtedly had its part in bringing about the unexpected result.

Perhaps the most surprising thing about the outcome is that it naturally looks like an expression of dissatisfaction with President Wilson—and Mr. Wilson has been, indeed he is, a popular President. The country has seemed to like the strength of character which he has displayed, the singleness of purpose, the fineness of his nature, the tone of his disinterestedness and sincerity which has marked his public utterances, his unremitting devotion to the public business, his firm leadership of his party. One would have said that the democratic managers could not do better than to make Mr. Wilson the single keynote of their campaign. The words on the title page of their campaign handbook, "Thank God for Wilson," looked like a good campaign slogan. It was a cheap and meretricious phrase, of course; but unfortunately that would not disqualify it for use in political campaigning. But the thought underlying it, that President Wilson had rendered good service to the country, was apparently democracy's biggest asset.

But the vote of confidence, which it would not have been unnatural for the president and his associates to expect, has not been given. If the result of the election should be interpreted as meaning anything in regard to Mr. Wilson, it comes close to a vote of lack of confidence.

COTTON SAVING ITSELF.

Cotton is working out its own salvation. The whole world is seeking it and taking more and more of it. Our exports are daily increasing. Before the year is out they will be on a normal basis, or in excess of it. The cotton planter will not be enriched by the price paid him but he is not to be the impoverished and charity-seeking object so persistently pictured lately by over-zealous friends.

There will be no $150,000,000 loan fund. There will be no more buy-a-bale hurrah. The former is not needed, and the latter was pure sentiment. The one project really helpful to the cotton planters is the agitation urging the purchase of cotton-made goods. Planters, manufacturers and wage-earners are benefited, and money is used in a legitimate, business-like way. Such purchases should not cease.

In a larger sense, however, the demand of the world for our cotton—a demand that was inevitable, is solving the problem.—New York Mail.

BOB BURDETTE.

Dear gentle Bob has gone to rest, worn out by years of pain, which could not make him cease to jest, or force him to complain. His humor, gentle as the dew, and stainless as the snow, as sweet as music and as true, refreshed this world of woe. The gentle humorist departs beloved from this sad earth, where he had made a million hearts responsive to his mirth: where he had brought a smile serene to many a hopeless face, this man who loved the good and clean, "who uttered nothing base," I doubt not that the hosts above are fond of quip and joke, and they will love him as he'll love the bright angelic folk I doubt not that the golden aisles ring loud with cheering yet, in honor of that prince of smiles, dear, gentle Bob Burdette.

SAYS VERDICT IS LEGALIZED INJUSTICE

WRITER IN STERLING GAZETTE SCORES VERDICT OF BYER'S JURY.

VERDICT NOT BASED ON FACTS

Asserts That Finding Is Disgrace on the County of Whiteside.

Writing to the Sterling Gazette, Charles Walker, a Sterling resident, scores the verdict in the Byers' murder trial as follows:

"It has been said that wonders will never cease. Judging by the verdict in the Byers case, that statement still holds good. That 12 men supposed and believed by competent attorneys, to be endowed with common sense could arrive at such a conclusion is almost beyond comprehension.

"In face of the fact that a human life has been sacrificed and no attempt was made on the part of the assumed to deny the responsibility for that fact other than the plea for self defense, it would seem that the people are to learn that no cognizance of the principle that law is for the protection of society is to be taken into consideration.

"Are we, who claim to be an enlightened people, to understand that verdicts may be based upon friendships and sympathy instead of law and evidence?

"Are the sworn statements of well known and highly respected citizens whose words are as good as their bonds, to have little or no influence upon those sitting in judgment?

"Are the statements of professional men unworthy of notice?

"Are the statements of eyewitnesses, who have testified repeatedly to certain facts, to be discredited?

"Are the declarations of a dying person, made almost in the visible presence of the Supreme Being, to be contemptuously tossed aside?

"Has the time come that homes are to be broken up, wives widowed and children orphaned, without cause or hindrance?

"Is it necessary to carry away when one is dutifully attempting to extricate the gentle cows from the forbidden corn?

"Little wonder that crimes are of such frequent occurrence.

"Such verdicts as this one can have no other effect than to promote the gratification of envy and lust and revenge by demonstrating the ease with which convictions can be avoided. Whiteside county keenly feels the wrong which has been visited upon the unhappy family of Emmanuel Byers by this unholy verdict rendered under the guise of justice. The entire populace holds only the most supreme contempt for the perpetrators of this legalized outrage. May the self-respecting law abiding citizens be spared from another such disgrace. May the cowardly unmanly sentiment against the conviction of women, which appears to have obtained consideration in this case, never develop strength enough to warrant the inauguration of lynch law in order that true justice may prevail.

Thanksgiving Joy

BY OLIVE HARPER

[Copyright, 1914, by American Press Association.]

MY cousin Esther was a notable housekeeper and the best cook in Wyoming valley, and she was preparing dinner in a happy frame of mind.

The young folks had all gone to town, to church, and were to return with the guests. Margaret, the artist daughter, had carried a basket to a sick neighbor. So Cousin Esther laid the table while the range was steaming and sizzling with the good things in the oven and on top. There were to be twenty-eight guests at table.

Cousin Esther brought large baskets from the cellar loaded with preserves, jams, jellies and pickles, great red apples, cheese, a cold boiled ham, pink and delicious home raised and cured. And there were big pitchers of milk and thick cream. The ham was put at one end of the table, and the preserves and pickles in pretty glass dishes were set along in double lines. The table was stretched to its capacity and supplemented by two others, with the old Avery silver at the head.

Cousin Esther thought that the best decoration for a table was an abundance of good and substantial food. She provided neither soup nor fish. But Margaret had taken a pumpkin and scooped it out and filled it with late flowers, bordered with richly tinted foliage. The dishes of jellies and the pickles with their dull greens gave color in contrast with the snowy cloth. The cheese was piled in generous cubes, the butter, golden and sweet, in fancy dishes. Piles of slices of bread cut from firm, big white loaves with crisp crusts were put at intervals along the whole length of the table, and six distinct kinds of cake were there, all frosted and iced.

The dresser held the pies—mince, apple, cranberry, lemon and pumpkin. It looked like a baker's show window, flanked by the big dishes of apples and the milk and cream and the great punch bowl which held the nuts—hickory nuts, walnuts and butternuts.

With quick, short steps Cousin Esther fairly flew between the table, range and "buttery," where all the kitchen work was done save cooking. The kitchen was twenty feet square and paneled and floored with oak, which Margaret had shelledacked till it shone. This room was both kitchen and dining room and had southern windows.

By the time the table was set Margaret returned from the sick neighbor's room and radiant, bringing the crispness of the mountain air along.

"Yes, mother; they were glad of the things. Anna can sit up. But what a helpless thing a man is! There would have been no Thanksgiving there but for you."

"But for you, you mean. Go and see if the visitors are coming. I hope they won't be late to spoil all my cooking."

"Yes; they are coming up the road. We have just time to dish up." Margaret donned her painter's apron and flew to help.

Cousin Esther let her mash the turnips, squash the potatoes and season the boiled onions. Everything was put on the table except the pies. Then came the crowning glories of the feast, a big chicken pie and a pan of baked beans from one oven and from the other a sparerib and a monstrous turkey brown as a chestnut and emitting appetizing odors.

The meats were set on the top of the range to keep hot, while the immense roast of beef was replaced in the oven, and the gravy was made. The vegetables were washed, set on the racks and tea and coffee made. A plum pudding had been baked in a six quart pan, and this was put in one oven to heat, while a perfect mountain of foamy "hard sauce" was ready on the dresser.

Scarcely was this done when three sleigh loads stopped at the gate, and Cousin Esther stood in the door with Margaret to welcome her guests.

There was much laughing as she hurried them in the removal of their wraps to come to dinner. The table was so crowded with the meats and vegetables that not one inch of cloth showed. Men were requested to carve and serve the different meats nearest them, and everybody helped everybody else. Miles had the turkey to carve, and so he could not see the look of appeal his sister Margaret gave him. Esther had all the children grouped around her place. She did not believe in making them wait, and she kept them so busy eating that they behaved very well at dinner and after they were too full to do more than pick at the nuts.

Everybody ate and laughed and complimented Cousin Esther, and her smiles broadened as she saw the substantial food disappearing.

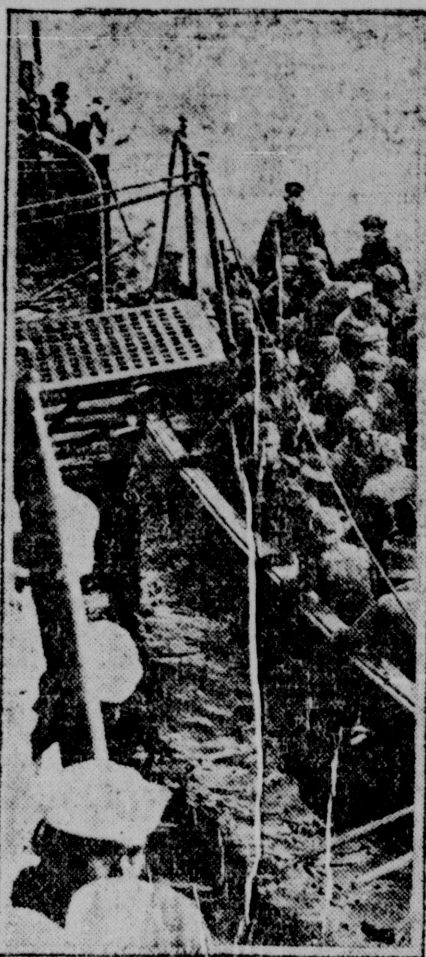

The guests ate their way through all the meats and vegetables, pickles and cheese and bread until there might have been a famine had it not been for the cakes, pies and pudding. Two of the young girls present volunteered to take away all the dishes and bring the pies and apples and nuts, also the noble pudding that was as rich as Croesus, yet gave no one indigestion. When they had all finished and literally could contain no more the guests went to the parlor, where Kate played on the organ and they all sang hymns. Cousin Esther and Margaret remained to set things to rights, for the young folks wanted to play games in the kitchen later. Miles came in with a letter bearing the Canadian stamp and a crest, showing that it was from the viceroys. Margaret went very white.

"I wanted you to enjoy your dinner and thought this would keep."

"Read it, Margaret," said Cousin Esther, fanning herself violently with a dish towel.

"I can't read it out, mother; I should cry if I tried, but it says that I am to paint all their portraits, beginning with the marquis himself."

"Well, dear," said Cousin Esther, a little shakily, "this is a real Thanksgiving, isn't it, Miles?"

"Yes, mother, and Lucy and I thought, coming up from Anna's—that is, if you are willing to have them here."

"Go and bring them here," said Cousin Esther, sitting down heavily. "Now, if your poor pa would only get over his rheumatism—well, I am thankful, very thankful."

And a couple of big, bright tears told how very thankful Cousin Esther was.

GERMANS LOSE TWO SHIPS, SAYS LONDON

Submarine and Torpedo Boat Destroyer Sent to Bottom.

London, Nov. 24.—The German navy has suffered the further loss of a torpedo boat destroyer and a submarine. The destroyer was cut in two by the Danish steamer Anglo-Dane in an accidental collision and sank when her boiler exploded. The submarine was discovered and destroyed by a British destroyer of the North coast of Scotland.

The destruction of the submarine, U-18, one of the newer and most effective types, is officially reported by the admiralty. There is an indication that the U-18 was at least 500 miles from her base at Wilhelmshaven and was searching for the British fleet.

The official statement says that the German submarine was detected off the north coast of Scotland and was rammed by a patrol vessel of the British fleet. The submarine foundered an hour after she had been rammed and one of the crew was drowned. The British destroyer Gary rescued and took prisoners three officers and twenty-three men of the crew.

A cruising radius of 2,000 miles made it possible for the U-18 to make the north coast of Scotland in the newest attempt to "whittle down" the British fleet. The craft had a displacement of 750 tons, was good for fourteen knots on the surface and eight knots when submerged and carried four torpedo tubes. She was finished in 1912.

Calumet, Mich., Nov. 24.—Two steamers passed Keweenaw Point, down bound, in the afternoon, and although they were too far out for identification they are believed to be two of the three boats reported missing—the Nipigon, Niko and Sinaloa. The Sinaloa was reported by fishermen to have put into Bete Gris harbor of refuge Saturday morning, leaving Saturday noon. The steamer Harvester, according to wireless, left Bete Gris Tuesday night for Duluth.

Sault Ste. Marie, Nov. 24.—That more than the three vessels already reported foundered with a heavy loss of life, went down in the violent storm that has kept old Lake Superior in a fury since Wednesday, is the belief expressed by marine men here. Continuous inquiries for the steamer Nipigon and the barge Niko, lumber carriers, long overdue, and from which no word has come, has led to the fear that these ships also were wrecked in the furious gale.

In addition no news has come from the Sinaloa, which left Duluth with the Edward F. Holmes and others. The Holmes passed down the locks at 1 o'clock Friday morning. She reported having seen nothing of the Sinaloa since shortly after leaving the head of the lakes. Finding of wreckage known to have been no part of the steamer C.E. Curtis or its two tows, the Annie M. Peterson and Selden E. Marvin, has added to the fears that the full toll of the storm has not yet been counted.

May Have Found Shelter.

It may be, however, that these boats put into shelter before the storm reached its height. Such was the case of the steamer Curtis, that reached Munsing harbor Thursday night with the Peterson, but turned back into the terrific sea when its skipper, Capt. J. P. Jennings of Detroit learned that the tow line drawing the second barge had parted, and that the Marvin was drifting helplessly somewhere in the mountainous sea. The Marvin had drifted far south and wreckage is now being washed ashore forty miles from Grand Marais, Mich., between Two Heart river and Crisp point. No bodies have been found there.

That several vessels are now safe after having made for shelter was shown when the steamer Flag, up bound, was spoken Sunday night.

GERMANS PLAN NEW STROKE

Reinforcements Rushed to Belgium—Submarine Raid Hinted.

Paris, Nov. 24.—It is unofficially reported that the Germans are rushing reinforcements to Belgium, getting ready, apparently, for another heavy assault when weather conditions become favorable.

It is said that they are fortifying the coast with immense energy; that they are assembling submarines at Zeebrugge, that the manufacture of Zeppelins is being hurried and that there are signs that the German fleet is getting ready to leave its bases—all reports pointing to a German plan to attack England.

TWO STATES ROCKED BY NITRO EXPLOSION

Blast Breaks Mile of Plate Glass at Gary.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—A wave of devastation, of shattered glass, rocking houses and falling chimneys, started at Millers, Ind., when a ton of nitroglycerine in the making exploded at the plant of the Aetna Powder company.

The chemist who was in charge of the manufacture of the lot of nitroglycerine shortly before 9 a. m. suddenly detected a warning change in the explosive. He shouted a warning to the few men in the small house and then rushed to the danger signal—a huge siren whistle. He pulled the cord and tied it down.

The warning shriek of the siren roared out over the sand dunes and every man within hearing dropped his work and sought shelter in the "evacuation cellars" provided for the purpose. Two minutes later the nitroglycerine let go. Nobody was hurt.

A mile of plate glass windows along Broadway in Gary were shattered as the violent shock rolled through the city. Thousands of women who were shopping in the bigger stores were thrown into a panic. Many women fainted.

The explosion shook buildings, shattered windows, frightened persons to the street and caused considerable apprehension in South Chicago and Hegewisch.

Police Seek Chief Johnson.

Sioux City, Ia., Nov. 24.—"Chief" George Johnson, a well known Indian base ball pitcher, is being sought by the Sioux city police and the police of several other cities, on a warrant charging wife desertion, sworn out at Pender, Neb. Johnson formerly played with the Cincinnati Nationals and finished last season with the Kansas City Federals.

MOTHER! IF CHILDS TONGUE IS COATED

LOOK MOTHER. IF TONGUE IS COATED GIVE "CALIFORNIA-IA SYRUP OF FIGS."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels and the result is they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-up plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

INTERESTING SIDE LIGHTS ON WAR

Folkstone, Eng., Nov. 1.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—English health officers at Folkstone are taking unusual precautions to prevent the admission of diseases into England from the war zone. Passengers arriving on the Flushing, Dieppe, Boulogne and Calis boats are examined with great care.

Folkstone is now practically the only commercial port open for passenger business from the continent, so the stream of refugees, tourists and wounded soldiers all passes through this port.

Health officers feel the pulse of every passenger, and the wrist carefully, look into the throat and eyes and scrutinize the foreheads for evidences of smallpox. In order that they may see the foreheads of ladies whose hair is fashionably dressed it is frequently necessary to push the hat and front hair back. This action on the part of physicians has frequently caused ladies to believe the physicians were secret service men who suspected they had messages concealed in their hair.

Immigration officials and plain clothes men examine the papers of all passengers very carefully before they enter England and usually engage them in conversation in an effort to ascertain whether their French or English has a German accent. Baggage is also examined thoroughly by inspectors to make sure it contains no German newspapers or letters from Berlin for persons in England.

Because of the improper use made of American passports by Lieutenant Lady of the German Naval Reserve and other spies apprehended in England, France and Belgium, all bearers of American passports are rigorously cross questioned. Flushing is the only open gateway from the United States and England to Germany which affords a direct trip and most travelers to and from Germany go by the Holland route as it is much shorter than the trip by way of Denmark, Norway and Sweden. Consequently the Flushing boats would probably be selected by the secret agents of the German government.

Scattered cases of scarlet fever and smallpox have already made their appearance among Belgium refugees in Holland and Northern Belgium. Every effort has been made to prevent the spread of these diseases in the refugee camps, but the Belgians are living in such crowded and unsanitary conditions that it is difficult to protect them against contagion.

Berlin, Nov. 1.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Germany's best wine producing district, Alsace-Lorraine, has suffered heavily by the war and it is claimed that the output will this year be far below normal.

Alsace, especially, has a poor crop according to reports. Not alone had the bad seasons of the last ten years caused a reduction of the area of vines, a decrease of 108 hectares (or about 300 acres) since 1903, but the earlier months of the year were very unfavorable for the development of the plant. The vines were affected by phylloxera which incense rains made worse, and then when hot weather finally came, the war broke out. In southern Alsace, where the valleys and hillsides of the Vosges are almost entirely given to vine growing, many vineyards were cut down in order to facilitate military operations, while others were trampled upon during battles.

The result of this has been that the wine crop of Alsace will be approximately one-third normal. Conditions in Lorraine are better. Although some of the vineyards around Metz were cut down when the war began, the crop generally is plentiful enough to discount this. The quality moreover, is said to equal that of 1904. Good weather early in the season favored a good average crop, and unlike those of Alsace and eastern France the wine growers of Lorraine were able to give their vineyards all needed care.

London, Oct. 23.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Although the big guns used by the Germans have been the surprise of the war and are accredited with having caused the fall of Liege, Namur and Antwerp, some military experts in England question the wisdom of carrying such weapons into the field regarding them as a burden which an army cannot afford to transport.

Colonel F. N. Maude, discussing the heavy guns, says in the Standard:

"It would be interesting to obtain the exact facts and calculate what the policy of taking the 42-centimeter and 28-centimeter howitzers into the field really cost the Germans in loss of transport power for the food of the troops. I am willing to grant that the 42-centimeter weapon was admirably adapted for its purpose of destroying steel and concrete targets presented by the forts of Liege and Namur. But seeing that the weight of one of the shells is nearly equal to the weight of a whole square meal for one of their battalions, would not the available horsepower, whether mechanical or actual, have been far better employed in hauling food for men to the front in the first instance?"

Military experts writing for the English press say that the big guns are not really a novelty. The new nature is their general use in the recent campaigns. Heavy guns were tried in the Franco-Prussian war over much the same territory where the recent fighting has taken place, but their movement was found too much of a burden.

England has constructed a more formidable weapon than the German which was built to use in the Crimea war but was not completed in time to go into the siege. The mortar is now at Woolich arsenal. It was built in sections for transport and has a thirty-six inch bore and a bursting charge of 550 pounds of gunpowder. It has been tested at Plumstead marshes and a shell sent with a full powder charge penetrated 18 feet and blew out a crater sixty feet in diameter.

Basel, Oct. 23.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—The mountain war going on in the Vosges has brought into action one of the most interesting bodies of French troops, the Alpine Chasseurs. They are finely built, powerful men, especially equipped for the mountains. They are dressed in hob-nailed boots, woolen leggings and navy-blue uniforms. They are almost invisible in the dark pine forests.

A favorite stratagem in their fighting is to occupy positions in the trees cleverly masked and so securely arranged that even a wounded or a dead man does not fall. Another device of the French Alpine troops is for a part of them, secreted in the branches to hold their rifle fire until German troops have passed well into a wood, and then to fire up on them from all sides. The light artillery is carried upon mules.

London, Oct. 23.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Although the Empress Eugenie is almost 89 years old she is taking the

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys if Bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

THOUGHT SHE COULD NOT LIVE

Restored to Health by Lydia
E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Unionville, Mo.—"I suffered from a female trouble and I got so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without holding on to something. I had nervous spells and my fingers would cramp and my face would draw, and I could not speak, nor sleep to do any good, had no appetite, and everyone thought I would not live."

Some one advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had taken so much medicine and my doctor said he could do me no good so I told my husband he might get me a bottle and I would try it. By the time I had taken it I felt better. I continued its use, and now I am well and strong.

"I have always recommended your medicine ever since I was so wonderfully benefited by it and I hope this letter will be the means of saving some other poor woman from suffering."—Mrs. MARTHA SEAVELY, Box 1144, Unionville, Missouri.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as that above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

greatest interest in the war and has set aside an entire wing of her house at Farnborough Hill for the use of wounded officers.

Several injured officers are now recuperating there and their aged hostess personally supervises their care. Her estate is near the great camp at Aldershot, which King George and Queen Mary visit frequently. Practically all of Empress Eugenie's men-servants have joined the army in France. Nevertheless she entertains many distinguished military men who visit Aldershot, apologizing for her plain fare and explaining that her cooks have more important work now than preparing food for an aged empress and her guests.

If you wish to keep posted on the public sales, read the dates in the Telegraph.

A New Word —not in the Dictionary, Yet

It is one thing to invent a new word—it is quite another thing, and of vastly more importance to mankind to invent a perfectly sanitary, dust-proof, leak-proof flour sack—a sack whose sanitary merits must revolutionize the entire flour milling industry.

Zephyr's Sanisac is without doubt the longest step in the direction of pure foods ever taken by any miller of flour—the chief article of food, and the one food product which, up to the present, has never been protected in an absolutely sanitary container.

Zephyr's Sanisac positively protects

PROBE HENRY HENZEL DEATH

Knights of Pythias Conduct Inquiry Over Chicago Man.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—Officials of the Knights of Pythias today are conducting an inquiry into the death of Henry Henzel, 5641 South Green street, whose body was found in the Des Plaines river near Joliet, Ill., Wednesday. Henzel was a member of the Concordia lodge, Knights of Pythias. The investigation was decided upon after the finding of Mr. Henzel's pocket book, over a mile distant from the spot where his body was recovered. Members of the slain man's family asserted their belief that he had been murdered by robbers. The detective bureau was requested to begin a search for his slayers.

Hog Cholera Holds Attention.

Decatur, Ill., Nov. 24.—Central Illinois farmers are forgetting the hoof and mouth disease in their haste to check the ravages of hog cholera. So great has been the demand for vaccine that it has been impossible to obtain the necessary amount from the state.

Hotel Landmark Destroyed.

Pana, Ill., Nov. 24.—The Oconee hotel at Oconee, Ill., burned, with all furniture and equipment. W. B. Huffaker, owner of the hotel, and his family, were compelled to flee in their night clothing. The hotel was a central Illinois war landmark.

Centenarian Dies.

Jacksonville, Ill., Nov. 24.—Mrs. Mary Hennessey Ring, widow of James Ring, died at the family residence in Woodson at the age of 100 years. She was the oldest resident of Morgan county, having come here from Ireland in an early day.

Nevertheless Optimism Pervades
Official Statement.

RUSS GET REINFORCEMENTS

"All the Berlin newspapers comment favorably and very hopefully on the possible outcome of the fighting. They express the opinion that these engagements may decide the entire Russian campaign, if not the outcome of the war.

"The Lokai Anzeiger has published an interview with an officer who speaks for the military authorities. He says that in consequence of the rolling up of the Russian right wing by General Von Hindenburg and the simultaneous attack of the Austrians on the Russian left a general Russian retreat, with the evacuation of Lemberg, is only a question of time."

German Patrol Destroyed.
Heavy fighting is still in progress today between Lowicz and Skierniewice, where the Russian force is opposing the main line of advance of the army of General Von Hindenburg.

Reports have been received of the destruction of a German cavalry patrol ten miles in advance of the main battle line. The Germans were cut off by Cossacks, and those not killed or wounded were made prisoners.

GERMANS SHIFTING ATTACK

Lull in Campaign in Belgium Followed by Fighting in Argonne.

Paris, Nov. 24.—Abandoning for the present their efforts to crush the allies in Belgium, the Germans are forcing the fighting in northeastern France, in the region of Verdun. They have delivered heavy infantry attacks in the Argonne. The official announcements by the French government state that all of these attacks were repulsed after very hot fighting.

It would appear from the official reports that a new crisis has developed at the east of the line. It is assumed here that the Germans have reinforced their troops operating in the Argonne and have commenced a determined campaign to advance siege guns within range of the Verdun forts. The latest news is that the force in the Argonne is commanded by the crown prince.

WAR'S TOLL IS STAGGERING

Losses to Date Are Placed at 5,000,000 Men.

London, Nov. 24.—A correspondent of the London News in West Flanders telegraphs:

"There is authority for stating that the war, in less than four months, has accounted for something like 5,000,000 of the pick of European manhood. This is no fancy figure. It has been worked out carefully."

FATHER SHOTS SON ON HUNT

Youth Wounded in Abdomen and Leg as Parent Fires at Rabbit.

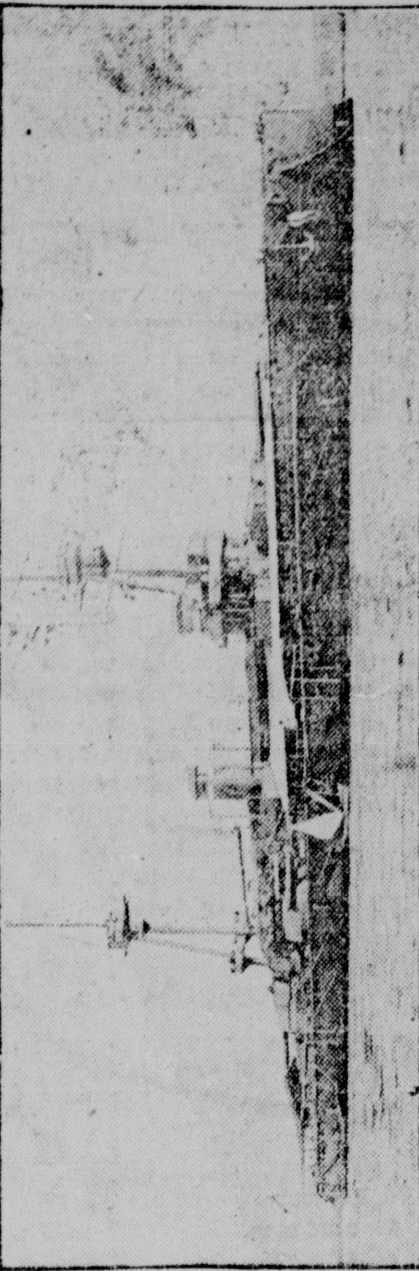

Belleville, Ill., Nov. 24.—James Lynch, seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lynch of O'Fallon, Ill., is in a serious condition in St. Vincent's hospital in Belleville as the result of being shot in the left leg and abdomen. The boy started out with his father on a hunting trip north of O'Fallon. His father had given him an air rifle.

The father saw a rabbit and told the boy to get behind him. The boy thought he ought to get a shot at the rabbit, and when his father was about ready to shoot ran toward the animal. The gun was discharged and the shot struck the boy in the left leg and abdomen. His condition is said to be serious.

Always a pleasing gift for Christmas, a box of engraved calling cards. Order early. B. F. Shaw Pig. Co.

DENIES DRUNK MAN'S STORY

Department Says Meat Exports Don't Figure in Spread of Disease.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Official recognition has been given by Secretary of Agriculture Houston to reports that have gained currency that the foot and mouth disease in cattle is being purposely spread in the hope of interfering with this country's export of meats to the warring countries in Europe.

The department's statement in substance says there is no foundation for the reports. They have been traced to an irresponsible individual in Lincoln, Neb., who admitted he was drunk at the time he made them.
